

ULSTER CAN'T JOIN IRISH FREE STATE CRAIG DECLARES

Lloyd George Notified As He Asks Parliament
To Ratify Pact.

TENSION IN DUBLIN AT FEVER HEIGHT

Little Headway Is Made In Effort To Get Rival
Forces Together.

London, Dec. 15.—Premier Lloyd George asked the house of commons this afternoon to ratify the Irish peace treaty in its original form without attempting any amendments.

In reply to questions the premier said, "Parliament has the power to change the treaty but alterations would destroy the pact and necessitate the reopening of negotiations. This would involve risk."

Sir James Craig, head of the Unionist government of Ulster, today notified Premier Lloyd George that it is impossible for Ulster to ever enter the Irish free state.

This notification of Ulster's intention to maintain her present status came while the Sinn Fein parliament at Dublin and the British parliament in London were debating the Irish peace treaty.

Dublin Situation Tense

Dublin, Dec. 15.—Tension between the Sinn Fein factions over the Irish peace treaty was at fever height when the two groups met again in secret session today to continue the deliberations broken off late last night.

Efforts to effect a compromise over the rival forces headed by Eamonn De Valera and Michael Collins apparently made little headway. De Valera won another "moral victory" when he succeeded in having today's session held in secret. Collins and Arthur Griffith founder of the Sinn Fein, attempted to have an open session today, but were defeated.

It is likely that an open session will be held tomorrow and that a vote upon the ratification of the peace settlement will take place before Saturday.

Irish newspapers take the view that ratification should be based only on the merits of the treaty. They contend that it was wrong to bring up the issue whether the Irish peace delegates exceeded their instructions. This view, it is understood, is held by a number of the members of the Sinn Fein. They contend that, if the treaty is acceptable to the people, it should be ratified regardless of the manner in which it was signed.

PROBE OF DANGEROUS RAILROAD CROSSINGS PROMISED BY STATE

Prosecuting Attorney J. C. Hanley recently wrote to the public utilities commission of Ohio demanding that something be done to protect the travelers at railroad crossings on the public highways between Salem and Lisbon and Lisbon and East Liverpool, especially the one at Gilmore's stop, were mentioned.

Thursday the prosecutor received word that an investigation of conditions at each of the crossings would be made at once. Mr. Hanley stated that there was no protection to the travelers on the highway at these crossings and that near accidents are of almost daily occurrence.

$15,000 Suit Instituted By Salem Couple

Base Suit On Auto Mishap
In Which Mrs. Harold Babb Was Hurt.

A head on automobile collision which occurred on McKinley ave. some time ago, and in which Mrs. Adda Babb, wife of Harold Babb was badly injured, will cost William Cox, taxi operator, and W. S. Arbaugh and Claude Tyler, whose automobile and truck figured in the mishap on the street, $15,000 damages, if the prayers in petition filed in common pleas court by Mr. and Mrs. Babb are granted.

In November, a year ago, between 8:30 and 9 o'clock in the evening, Mrs. Babb became a passenger in the Cox Taxi to go from Salem City hospital to her home on McKinley ave. The petition states that they had proceeded but a short distance when the taxi, the Arbaugh machine and the Tyler florists' truck came together in a head on collision and she was thrown forward and through the windshield of the machine.

She was badly cut about the face and chin, injured about the body, her left collar bone broken, and her nervous system shattered, the petition states.

Mrs. Babb is her husband's assistant as a dancing master, playing the piano at dancing school and at invitation dances, and she says that she lost $600 in salary, in addition to her expenses and suffering by reason of the accident.

She demands $10,000 damages against the three defendants, and Mr. Babb asks the court to give him $5,000 for the loss of her services as an assistant, and being compelled to spend $450 for nursing and medical care for her.

REPORT REFLECTS BETTER BUSINESS

Increase In Production Of Pig Iron Shows Trend
To Better Times.

Cleveland, Dec. 15.—"Pig iron production in November increased 15 per cent," says a statement issued by The Cleveland Trust Co., today.

"There never has been a time when such a gain did not usher in definitely better times. In the steel industry railroad buying continues in considerable volume and is expected to increase."

"November bonds sales were the largest in a record for that month," the statement continues. "Prices have risen and the demand is undiminished. A study of the situation indicates that further gains are probable."

"Spring sales campaigns launched by the large rubber companies are bringing in orders from dealers all over the country, and in unexpected large volume," it is said. As a result, "Akron companies are expected to maintain operations this winter at a much better rate than they did last winter."

General business conditions throughout the United States are markedly better, the statement asserts. Production in almost every line is increasing, and the worst of the long period of depression is past.

"National consumption is running ahead of production," it is declared, and "now stocks are low and inventories reduced. Production of flour, coke, steel, cement and wool products is about double the minimum amounts recorded some months ago."

BUILDING AND LOAN OFFICIALS WILL MEET

Almost all building and loan officials in Columbiana county will be in Youngstown Friday to attend a meeting of the members from the Seventh district of the Ohio Building Association league. This district comprises Ashtabula, Lake, Geauga, Portage, Trumbull, Stark, Mahoning, Columbiana and Summit counties.

Speakers at the meeting will include John W. Prugh, Columbus state superintendent of building and loan institutions, James A. Devine, secretary of the Ohio Building Association league, and others.

In speaking of the coming meeting, Charles D. Tyler, Ashtabula, president of the district organization, declared that the past year had been a prosperous one for building and loan institutions in the Seventh district. He pointed out that building and loan institutions in Columbiana county had increased their deposits $1,223,876 during the last year. During the last 10 years these same institutions in this county have shown a gain of $2,923, or 56 per cent.

GERMANY NAMES CONSUL

Berlin, Dec. 14.—Dr. Karl Lang was today appointed German consul general to the United States.

SAFETY DIRECTOR SEEKS FUNDS FOR MORE POLICEMEN

Wants Sufficient Force To Patrol All Outlying Districts.

NEW ALARM SYSTEM ALSO IS REQUESTED

Ample Protection Can't Be Given With Present Force, He Says.

In the safety department's appropriation request to city council for the six-month period from Jan. 1 to July 1, provisions will be made to secure additional police officers to assist the two regular police and one merchant police who are now doing patrol duty, according to Director of Safety Alex Thompson Thursday.

While the number of additional policemen to be requested is unknown it is understood that a sufficient force is wanted to patrol all residence and outlying districts.

The possibility exists that Safety Director Chaffant may ask council for an appropriation for the purchase of an efficient alarm system if his request for more police is granted.

A ring-in alarm system with alarm stations placed in all sections of the city so officers may report to headquarters at regular intervals, is the system under consideration, it is claimed.

Under present conditions, according to the safety director, one patrolman and one merchant police is on night duty. The police call light is at Main st. and Broadway and the night officer must be in sight of it at all times, which requirement leaves the residential district practically unprotected.

The police chief and one officer are on day duty with the chief required to attend to daily office duties.

The safety director claims with such a small force ample protection cannot be given residents and he is going to place the situation squarely before council and ask for an increase in his department.

SAYS FARMERS SHOULD USE BUSINESS METHODS

Cincinnati, Dec. 15.—Farmers should apply business methods to the financing and marketing of their products, Henry C. Wallace, secretary of agriculture in President Harding's cabinet, declared last night at a meeting attended by more than 2,000 members of the Ohio State grange in annual convention here.

"Business methods are as necessary on the farm as in the counting house or factory," Wallace declared. "The great business of agriculture must be stabilized, and this cannot be done unless the farmer becomes in fact a business man in all that the term implies."

Would Taboo Gambling At County Fairs

Butler Farm Bureau Calls
Devices Injurious To Boys And Grls.

Declaring games of chance and gambling have been given a prominent place and are on the increase at county fairs, members of the Butler Township Farm bureau have protested to the county board of agriculture, requesting that all gambling devices be excluded from the fair grounds.

The resolution, adopted at a meeting Wednesday night at Willow Grove grange protests "that these gambling devices" are injurious to the best interests of our boys and girls" and that "educational and agricultural exhibits are crowded to the background."

The bureau elected these officers: President, E. Y. Gamble; vice president, George Wilkinson; secretary-treasurer, W. H. Boone. Committee chairmen are: Horticulture, Delbert Greenamyer; livestock, Roy Wilinery; poultry, Mrs. A. U. Paton; grain, K. O. Sanor; legislative, W. H. Boone; purchasing and marketing, K. O. Sanor and Harvey Mounts; membership, Joseph Hall; dairy, W. B. Stratton.

These officers will take office Jan. 3, following the meeting of the county board of agriculture.

It was decided that the Butler Farm bureau shall meet once every three months and the next meeting will be the second Wednesday in February at Willow Grove grange hall.

REACH COMPLETE NAVAL AGREEMENT

Character Of Ships To Be Retained Considered
By Big Three.

Washington, Dec. 15.—A final and complete agreement on the naval limitation program was reached at today's secret meeting of the conference big three—Hughes, Balfour and Kato—according to all indications at the close of the session. No official announcement, however, was forthcoming.

Balfour and Kato were in good spirits when they left the office of Secretary of State Hughes.

The big three went into secret session shortly before noon to iron out the dual details of the naval ratification agreement.

One of chief details to be adjusted, according to authentic information at the time of the meeting, is the character of the ships, which Great Britain will be admitted to construct as an asset to Japan's retention of the Mutsu and America's retention of the Colorado and the Washington.

Two alternative proposals in this respect were before the big three, it was understood. One was that Great Britain will keep two new super-hoops and scrap four old dreadnaughts and one cruiser; the other that Great Britain will construct two new ships of the royal sovereign class and four old dreadnaughts.

While the character of the other changes agreed upon is withheld for the time being, it is believed, that announcement of the settlement of the naval ratio will be coupled with a statement of policy concerning Pacific fortifications, probably a maintenance of the status quo, each of the powers agreeing not to place additional fortifications in the Pacific holdings.

TREASURY ISSUES NEW SAVINGS CERTIFICATES

Washington, Dec. 15.—Formal announcement was made by the treasury department today of the issuance of a new form of government security to be known as treasury savings certificates.

The certificates also known as thrift bonds were placed on sale today in unlimited amounts. Secretary of Treasury Mellon expressed the hope that annual sales of these certificates would amount to $500,000,000.

CAR SKIDS, WOMAN HURT

Mrs. T. J. McNicol sustained cuts about the head and her son, Carroll, narrowly escaped injury at 2 p. m. Thursday when their car skidded on the slippery pavement, as they attempted to make the turn at the intersection of Fifth st and Garfield ave.

The machine skidded to curb, the impact being so great that two wheels were broken and the fenders badly damaged. Carroll McNicol was driving the car.

Fingerprint Savings Depositors

To protect the depositors in Uncle Sam's Postal Savings Banks an order has been issued by the department that all depositors be fingerprinted as a means of identification in the event postal savings certificates are lost. Heretofore anyone possessing savings certificates found it easy to cash same. Now when the holder of a certificate presents it for payment the fingerprint is compared with the one on record, and if they agree the possessor of the certificate receives the money on deposit. The photo shows the system placed in effect in the New York postoffice.

Favors Bible In School But Not Indiscriminate Reading

Rector Wants Reading Of Selected Ethical Or Moral Passages.

Views on the placing of the Bible in the public schools as a text book have been expressed in these columns recently by writers of the Jewish faith, members of the W. C. T. U. which organization initiated the movement, and others. Today The News presents the following views of Rev. F. S. Eastman, rector of the Church of Our Saviour, on "The Bible in Schools."

"This subject need not arouse controversy. Already 12 states favor the reading of selected passages of the Bible without sectarian comment. In about 12 other states the courts or state school superintendents have decided that the use of the Bible is lawful.

"The custom is growing to meet our needs but there is no excuse for misunderstandings or controversy because Bible reading in school does not mean teaching theological, dogmatic, or what is popularly known as denominational theories.

"It does mean reading selected ethical or moral passages that have to do with right living like the sermon on the Mount over which there is no controversy. President Butler of Columbia, and Hadley of Yale, say that a way must be found to blend the moral and secular education in schools.

No one for a moment, advocates the indiscriminate reading of the Bible in schools. Our leading educators

SALEM KIWANIS GET CHARTER AT NOTABLE BANQUET

Presentation Is Made By
Lieut. Gov. Heddleson
Of E. Liverpool.

OUTBURST OF PEP MARKS GATHERING

Speeches, Songs And Stunts
Given In Elks Home
Last Night.

A demonstration of pep and good fellowship such as has never before been experienced at a Kiwanis gathering since the organization of the local club here last October was witnessed Wednesday night at the Elks home on McKinley ave when 100 Kiwanians from East Liverpool, Alliance, Lisbon, Youngstown, Warren and Girard gathered here with the 60 Salem Kiwanians to commemorate the charter presentation to Salem club by Russell C. Heddleson of East Liverpool, lieutenant governor of the Ohio district of Kiwanis clubs.

Pep burst forth.

With pep predominant and not to be denied and each Kiwanian and guest decked in paper hats bearing the Kiwanis emblem and possessing a tin horn or some noise making contrivance, the meeting marked the climax of Salem Kiwanis activities in carrying out their motto, "We Build."

It was a Kiwanis night from start to finish. First the ball room of the Elks was draped in Kiwanis colors, purple and white, and at one end of the room a large electric letter "K" in Kiwanis colors was hung. Tables were arranged to form the first letter of the name of the club, and each Kiwanian was bubbling with real Kiwanis spirit.

The banquet was served at 7 p. m. with local girls performing excellent service as waitresses. The menu consisted of oyster cocktail, waters, celery, salted peanuts, olives, frie-asse of chicken, mashed potatoes, buttered rolls, pineapple sherbert, pumpkin pie, whipped cream, coffee and cigars.

Before serving the banquet a short period was devoted to singing, "America" and popular songs were among the number. Rev. H. H. Scott, pastor of the First M. E. church delivered the invocation.

McCarthy Is Toastmaster

The Pension Department

THESE are interesting facts and figures to be found in the report of the pension department of the government. Among the more than half-million names on the pension roll at the close of the last fiscal year are names that carry the reader far back into history. There are 61 widows of men who saw service in the war of 1812, though the last of the soldiers long since has been mustered out. There are 169 survivors of the Mexican war and 2559 widows of soldiers who had a part in that struggle, all living and drawing pensions.

The enormous decrease in the number of Civil war veterans is one of the striking facts in the report. The high point in number of the Civil war pensioners was in 1898 when there were 745,822 names on the roll. Now there are but 218,775, so rapid has been the decrease as the years have passed. More than 25,000 have died each year in recent times, the number of deaths showing a steady increase. The pension list now contains the names of 267,269 soldiers, 299,955 soldiers' widows, 2163 minor children, 919 helpless children, 4285 dependents and 162 nurses. The amount paid last year for pensions was $258,715,842. For the previous year it was $213,295,314, the increase being caused by more liberal payments under new laws.

The figures prove the continuing generosity and substantial appreciation of the nation for the men who fought its battles in the past. Hundreds of millions have been expended and other hundreds of millions will be provided that substantial help be given those hurt in the struggle or incapacitated and unprovided for in helpless old age. In no other way is the largeness of the national heart and the generous sympathy that flows from it more plainly shown.

Weather Predictions

MANY persons who have read the weather predictions daily for the last two months and then have noticed what really happened will be surprised to know that the weather bureau is right 85 per cent of the time. Statistics of predictions and actualities the country over for the last five years establish that fact, though it may seem incredible. The skeptic must bear in mind that it is human nature to remember the occasional failures and forget the frequent successes. If a man makes one conspicuous mistake in any field of endeavor, it counts more against him with his friends and the general public than a dozen correct performances count for him.

Farmers, produce dealers, coal merchants, ship owners and men engaged in other important activities count greatly on the weather predictions, to no small extent regulating their business by them. It is more for these great interests, whose successful or unsuccessful conduct affects us all, that the forecasts are made than for the man who desires to know whether or not to wear his overcoat or the woman who is doubtful about carrying her umbrella. Thus the 85 per cent of the predictions is of great value to the country's business, while the 15 per cent performs an appreciated service to the public in general, since we all need a reliable national joke to cheer us on our way.

Soda Mixer Recalls Dentist.

"I'll have a chocolate malted milk, please," said the stenographer to the soda clerk. "Please mix it with a spoon instead of the electric mixer."

"Mix it with a spoon!" exclaimed the clerk, somewhat surprised. "That will take me three times as long, and I'm busy!"

"But it must be mixed with a spoon," the little thing at the counter exclaimed.

"Why?" asked the clerk.

"Well," she replied, "I can't stand the noise that that soda mixer makes. It sounds just like that thing that the dentist puts in my mouth when he wants to make a filling. It makes me creep all over when I hear it."—New York Sun.

Voices of the Bells

"THERE is neither speech nor language, but their voices are heard among men." This is an inscription engraved upon one of the bells in a tower in Antwerp, Belgium, in 1658, but, long before this date, voices of bells had told to humanity their tales of gladness or sadness, of threatened danger or safety achieved, and always the world understood and responded to mood or emergency as the case might have been.

For centuries church bells have told the ever-new, old story of the Christ Child. For weeks before the sacred day arrives a wild rush of preparations leaves little time for reflection. In these busy hours clanging bells of impatient street cars spur the pedestrian to heroic efforts and startle the pre-occupied shopper out of some absorbing reverie. This is the time when fatigue and happiness go hand in hand, and many an exhausted mother, nodding on her homeward ride, hears the ripple of baby laughter and the patter of hurrying feet above the raucous noises attending her trip. Father, with his arms piled high, looks over the crowd with a far-away expression, seeing only the one paramount incident of the Christmas revelation, and starry eyes that will turn toward him with a deeper lovelight written in their shining depths. It is this marvelous hour toward which the whole world moves with one concerted motive, and in its hallowed joy revives the spirit that is the foundation of a nation's greatness.

When the bells of Christmas morn peal their tidings of "Peace and Good Will" it will be to a world waiting to receive the message; a world that has been hurried and excited and interested, but which has all unconsciously been acquiring a spirit in rapport with the burden of their chiming. All the stress of living and striving, all the hurts and the sorrows are softened by the benediction of the bells. Deeper reverence for life and a fuller appreciation of the love that surrounds us is roused by their Yuletide music. They call to all that is best and loveliest and we answer by an outpouring of Christmas spirit, a keener sense of human brotherhood and a closer knitting of family ties. While they have "neither speech nor language," they tell a marvelous story, a story that we understand, and we live better for that understanding.—Detroit News.

ALLIANCE POLICE JAIL 75 MEN IN ROUNDUP AS RESULT OF CRIME WAVE

Alliance, Dec. 15.—Wholesale arrests of suspicious characters, whites and negroes, followed a succession of raids early today and last night by Alliance police, Sebring officers and railroad and express company detectives. Several places on Front st and Jersey st and two brick yards were searched with the result that 72 men were locked up as suspicious persons during the night.

For the past several weeks a wave of crime has menaced Alliance and the surrounding district. During this period holdups, burglaries and petty thefts have averaged almost one a day. This roundup, which was planned several days in advance by the six groups of officers who cooperated in carrying it out, is calculated to put a stop to much of this lawlessness which follows in the wake of hard times.

The raids in different quarters followed seven arrests Tuesday which it is believed will clear up two Monday night robberies. One man is being held on a grand larceny charge in connection with the looting of Shaffer's warehouse. Another held on a suspicion of person who may be connected with the robbery.

Two other arrests were made in

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Back-ache or Have Bladder Trouble

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which every one should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

FAVORS BIBLE

brought before them. The ultimate aim of education is character building but our nation now realizes that we have not put in our educational plan the very teaching necessary to develop the highest morals. It is largely through the fine Christian influences of our devoted school teachers, officers and boards that our young people have grown up with moral ideals.

"People generally do not sufficiently appreciate the fine spiritual influences of our school teachers as they strive to develop the highest qualities in our children. One hour in Sunday school and church with parental advice has been found insufficient to build moral nature. The whole nation is considering this problem.

"Is there anything better than selected passages from the Bible in schools? Other plans are being tried in some places which we can discuss if necessary.

"It is also well to remember that our constitution assumes Christian laws and ideas for the supreme courts have asserted that the United States is a Christian nation. One quotation is sufficient, delivered by Justice Brewer, Feb. 29, 1892:

"Beyond all these matters no purpose of action against religion can be imputed to any legislation, state or national because this is a religious people. If we pass beyond these matters to a view of American life as expressed by its laws, its business, its customs, and its society, we find everywhere a clear recognition of the same truth. These and many other matters form a volume of unofficial utterances to the mass of organic utterances that this is a Christian nation."

"Finally, this country was founded on definite Christian ideals of brotherhood, which I cannot find under the Koran, Confucius or any eastern philosophy, and moreover, I find that human life is only sacred, and true liberty is only assured where this Christian idealism is assumed.

"Our constitution grants liberty of thought and worship, but not liberty to break the moral laws of God. So many of our young people throughout this country are breaking the moral laws that our leading educationists are pleading strongly for the insertion of moral, ethical instruction in our schools. What else can be done to meet our needs?

"I would advocate that newspapers like our church papers only print signed letters, because unsigned letters generally have a sting which adds nothing constructive to society. "Why not have letters on all our problems, but in a kind spirit and signed?"

"In behalf of our dear boys and girls,

"Yours faithfully,
"FREDERIC S. EASTMAN"

DARKEN GRAY HAIR LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens So
Naturally That Nobody Can Tell

Hair that loses its color and luster or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only the old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wye's Sage and Sulphur Compound" which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wye's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and luster and gives it an appearance of abundance.

WILL NOT SCRAP OLD IRONSIDES

THAT AND OTHER FAMOUS SHIPS OF FORMER WARS WILL BE PRESERVED BY AMERICA.

FULL OF GLORIOUS MEMORIES

Efforts of the Pacific Slackers Are Wasted and Could Not Induce the Government to Destroy Those Vessels That Won Great Victories.

By EDWARD B. CLARK

Washington.—If the outcome of the conference on the limitation of armaments is what is hoped for, a great many ships which have done good service in the American navy will go to the scrap heap, but there are several ships which the American people may know in advance never will be scrapped.

It is not probable that the conference will result in the scrapping of the war-time memories of the American people, although some of the agitators here who "ducked their duty" in war and left their fellowmen to do their fighting for them, apparently wish that all the memories of the past might be wiped out. They are a precious lot, these slackers. Apparently there is not a patriotic emotion in the breast of any one of them, and yet Washington authorities seem to feel compelled to tolerate their presence and their pernicious picketing activities.

One expects to see some day, if things go on as they are, a procession marching along Pennsylvania avenue with a big banner at the head carrying these words: "Scrap Old Ironsides"—Old Ironsides being the frigate Constitution which now lies in the Charlestown (Mass.) navy yard, empty of other cargo but loaded with glorious memories of sea victories of the past. The processionists would march in vain, for the American people presumably can be depended upon, a majority of them at least, to insist in the future, as they have insisted in the past, that the ship which Oliver Wendell Holmes once saved from the scrap heap by his great poem, "Aye tear her tattered ensign down," shall not be sent to the limbo of forgetfulness.

The Constitution, therefore, unquestionably is safe, and so is the Constellation, which virtually is a sister ship of the Constitution, and which sailed the seas for many years and on several occasions met and defeated the ships of the enemy.

Fate of the Kearsarge.

It was the government's intention to save for all time the old Kearsarge which fought the fight with the Alabama off Cherbourg, France, in the days of the Civil war. The ship was kept in commission and it formed a part of the North Atlantic squadron for a good many years. With other ships of the squadron it sailed forth one day in 1893 from Bar Harbor, Me., and that voyage probably was the last time that the squadron of the old timers ever was together.

They were full-rigged ships with steam auxiliary, and the sight of them with all sail set was one long to be remembered. The Kearsarge was sent on a commission to the West Indies with a party of scientists on board. On a perfectly clear, bright day it ran on Roncador Reef, and it was impossible to save her. There her bones bleached.

The old Hartford, Farragut's ship at Mobile bay, still is borne on the navy register but it is out of commission. It needs repairs badly, and congress has been asked to add a sum to the next naval appropriation bill which will enable this old fighting craft to be saved.

The body of the unknown American soldier which was buried in Arlington with such solemn ceremonies on Armistice day was brought to the United States on the Olympia, an old-time fighting vessel which was Dewey's flagship at the battle of Manila bay. It was on the bridge of the Olympia that Dewey, turning to Lieutenant Commander Gridley said: "You may fire when you are ready, Mr. Gridley." The Olympia is to be saved.

Oregon Surely Will Be Saved.

The old Oregon never will be scrapped unless the people lose their patriotic memories and emotions. There are men still comparatively young who remember the voyage of the Oregon around Cape Horn when she was on her way under forced draft to make the east coast of the United States in time to join the fleet which later put the Spanish Admiral Cervera's battleships out of commission in a running fight.

Admiral Charles E. Clark, who is still living, although he is on the retired list, was the captain of the Oregon on that record-breaking voyage. While on the way south from San Francisco to round the Horn, news was received to the effect that Spanish destroyers and torpedo boats were on the lookout for the Oregon. This news was read by Captain Clark to the crew assembled on the forward deck. They received the information with roaring cheers and the ship's band played "The Star-Spangled Banner." The Oregon made its northern port in safety and later did great service in the fight at Santiago.

The area of England is less than one-half that of the state of Colorado.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. Catarrhal Deafness requires constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, it causes a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed. Forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surface of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions. Circulars free. All Druggists. F. J. The cheapest and most generally useful electrical appliance and at the same time the one most seldom taken advantage of in the ordinary household is the portable lamp. This simply consists of a few yards of flexible insulated wire, at one end of which is fixed an ordinary plug to screw into a wall or chandelier socket and at the other a lamp socket. The cost is very little.

Changed Father's Text. "We will take as our text this morning," announced the absent-minded clergyman, consulting his memorandum, "the sixth and seventh verses of the 31st chapter of Proverbs."

"Never suspecting that his vivacious son and heir had found the memorandum in his study on the previous night and, knowing that his papa had composed a sermon celebrating the increased severity of dry law enforcement, and diabolically changed the chapter and verse numerals to indicate a very different text, the absent-minded clergyman turned to the place and read aloud these words of Solomon:

The Best Time to Buy!

We are frequently asked when is the best time to buy stocks.

Sometimes it is difficult to answer, but at the present time there are so many gilt-edged securities on the bargain counter that it would actually be difficult for a man of good judgment to make an unprofitable purchase.

There are numerous high-grade, dividend-paying stocks in old, established companies that offer yields of 15% to 30% on equities (after interest on brokers' loans) in addition to the prospect that they will at some time in the future, sell for much higher prices.

It is just as easy to buy these securities through us as it is to buy inferior ones from the itinerant representatives of unknown firms.

Write or telephone us about any security that may be offered to you by a stranger, and we will get the facts for you.

THEATRES

Romantic Star Here Tonight
An attraction that will doubtless delight local theatergoers to the point of ecstasy, and scheduled to appear at the Grand opera house tonight is the famous international romantic star, Lea Tellegen, who will present himself and his own company in an elaborate revival of the play in which he made his greatest American success, "Blind Youth," as a comedy drama in three acts.

Mr. Tellegen has made so many distinct hits since his first appearance in this country as leading man with Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, that his sterling worth as an artist is well known to every patron of the theater on both sides of the Atlantic.

"Sunny South" Company
There is any amount of legitimate fun, laughter and wit in the performance which will be given by the J. C. Ruckwell "Sunny South" company in the Grand opera house Tuesday evening, Dec. 20. The organization is composed of about 25 colored people, each an expert in specialty work. It is a musical performance, wedded to the most useful music, full of ginger and life, with not a dull moment from the rise to the final fall of the curtain. The organization is accompanied by an excellent solo concert band and a symphony orchestra. The Ruckwell parade takes place at noon.

"My little girl Dorothy no longer has the asthma, and I have Kerker's Asthma and Hay Fever preparation to thank for it," is the joyful statement made by C. E. McDonald, 236 Prospect avenue, Zanesville, and manager of the Zanesville Bargain Shoe Store.

"Dorothy, who is only four years old, had a bad case of asthma for two years. She was greatly affected by damp weather; mucous would gather in her throat, her sleep was disturbed, her chest and neck caused her to wheeze," continued Mr. McDonald. "She took several bottles of Kerker's Asthma and Hay Fever preparation and it has effected a cure, for which I would not begrudge a great deal of money."

Kerker's Asthma and Hay Fever Remedy is sold in Salem by The J. H. Lease Drug Co., Flooding Pharmacy and Bolger & French.

To Give Timber "a Shot."

The best method of applying preservatives to timber is by the pressure process which is used by practically all large commercial companies, says the American Forestry Magazine of Washington. By this means the oil or mineral salt is forced deeply into the tissues of the wood, thus giving a thoroughness and permanence not otherwise attainable. There are various processes, but all use large and expensive apparatus by which vacuums and heavy pressure may be applied in large treating cylinders, which are usually six feet or more in diameter and a hundred feet or more in length.

SALEM KIWANIS

wanis club as sponsor and told of the growth of the Salem club from a mere hand full of progressive men to a strong organization of 60 members banded together for civic improvement.

Representing Alliance Kiwanis club Dr. B. C. Bernard delivered an excellent address on "Kiwanis." He elaborated on the character of the members, their pursuits in life, their activities as Kiwanians in fostering every movement for the betterment of the community in which they are an organization.

Disappointed by the absence through sickness of Frank P. Jackson of Youngstown, who was on the program as one of the speakers, the meeting was tendered a surprise when Kiwanian Gomer Lewis, sheriff of Columbiana county, brought a handcuffed prisoner in the room, an "I. W. W. member" who flayed capitalists, chambers of commerce, present business methods and every legitimate phase of life. As the climax of the speech was reached the prisoner proved himself to be C. E. Swayze, field representative of the American Legion who changed from Dr. Jekyll to Mr. Hyde and in a patriotic address told of the legion activities in Ohio and urged a greater demonstration of patriotism.

Russell C. Heddleson of East Liverpool, in presenting Salem Kiwanis club with its charter admitting the local club as a member of the Kiwanis International, commended the Salem club for its splendid development and paid tribute to the members for the good work completed in the short time since the organization.

Charter Is Presented

"Columbiana county leads all other counties in Kiwanis clubs according to membership when ratio of the population is considered. We have five Kiwanis clubs in this county and when the Kiwanis national convention was held at Chicago two good representatives were sent to Columbiana county to come in personal contact with Kiwanis spirit here," stated Mr. Heddleson.

Reply to the charter presentation was made by E. V. Burt, president of Salem club, who briefly told of the activities fostered by the local organization such as assistance in the Red Cross drive and institution of nutrition classes in public schools.

Short speeches were made by Kiwanian Ralph Sayer of East Liverpool, and by President L. L. Ferree, Secretary R. W. Hawley and D. B. McCune of the Rotary club.

Novelty stunts were put on by Lisbon and Warren clubs.

Russell B. Wise, Cleveland, with Mrs. A. W. Stoner as accompanist, delighted with vocal selections. Orchestra music was furnished by the Finley-Shuck Society orchestra.

TREATMENT OF CHILDREN'S COLDS

The fact that the child is taking cold or has developed one is in itself cause for alarm. It is proof that the organs of the human body are not functioning.

First a purgative; castor oil or a laxative advised by the doctor. Put the child to bed and use Nash's Salve as for croup. Carefully apply wet, hot towels for possibly five minutes to throat and chest to open the pores. Then follow with Nash's Salve thickly. Cover this with warm white flannel and arrange bed cloth in a sort of a tunnel around neck to allow vapors to be breathed freely. Don't forget to apply a little of the salve up each nostril.

Morning will find the cold completely broken and the child in usual spirits. Convalescence will follow quickly and naturally. The same treatment is equally effective for adults.

SCIENCE SAYS SNEEZE NATURE'S DANGER SIGNAL

Strong Constitution Tries To Throw Off the Oncoming Cold.

Heed the Warning, Mother

It is a common thing to hear a man say after a violent sneeze, "I have taken cold."

This is not so. He is taking cold. The sneeze is his system's effort to shake it off and to warn him to use a preventative.

So, mother, when your child sneezes, run and get the bottle of Nash's Croup-Pneumonia Salve. Heed Nature's warning. Apply a little with finger way up in the little nose; have the child close mouth and breathe deeply; repeat at intervals until cold gets discouraged and withdraws its attacks.

Children like the Nash treatment; it is pleasant and does not make them sick. Doctors like it, too, because it does not interfere with their prescriptions, in fact, many physicians and hospitals use the same treatment in case of pneumonia.

Indications Point To Public Awakening

That mothers and fathers, school and health authorities are awakening to the seriousness of colds is reflected by the sale of Nash's Salve in our local drug stores.

People are buying the salve "in order to have it in the house if needed." This is the spirit intended to be developed by these articles. The mortality among children can be reduced by close attention to indications of an approaching cold.

Many families, however, are not reached by the printed appeal. Teachers should urge school children to tell their parents the dangers of a common cold and how to relieve it.

May Save Your Child's Life This Winter

Considering the very slight cost, the great good accomplished by it, you should go right now to the nearest drug store for a bottle of Nash's Croup-Pneumonia Salve.

Besides using it personally and deriving uncounted benefits, having the salve in the house might save your child's life this winter.

Colds are insidious things. They appear trifling at bedtime and at midnight have developed into a fearsome thing. You may not be able to reach the doctor. Better to have used Nash's Salve earlier.

NERVOUSNESS, HEADACHE AND STOMACH TROUBLE ENDED

Nerv - Worth Quickly Overcomes These for Adolph Shields.

"I had had Saint Vitus Dance, and it left me in an awful nervous condition," said Adolphus Shields, a well known Clarkburg, W. Va. resident. "My head ached a great deal, and my stomach was also in bad shape. I had doctored considerably with no results. Two bottles of Nerv-Worth improved my condition wonderfully, and I feel like a new man." It is a strange fact, but nervous and stomach ills are usually found together, and they are likewise the cause of much misery. Nerv-Worth's ability to act in such cases, and act quickly, makes it the ideal medicine for those who suffer from such troubles. If your first bottle does not benefit you, your druggist is authorized to refund your money. Sold by all leading druggists.
